MEMORIAL T-SHIRT WORKSHOP

At the monthly meeting on September 2nd, we will hold a T-shirt-making workshop. The workshop, which will take place during the sharing group time of the meeting, will help members make Memorial Shirts for the Memorial Walk that will be held on October 2nd at Quiet Waters Park..

Here's what you will need if you would like to make a shirt: 1) a photograph of your child, 2) a T-shirt (or sweat shirt, short-sleeved or long-sleeved) -- white or very light gray works best, and 3) butterfly fabric or other fabric of your choosing that represents your child to be ironed on the shirt. You can iron wonder-under (available at any fabric store) on the fabric and cut out your designs ahead of time.

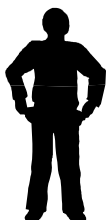

We will provide the transfer sheets and will have some butterfly fabric ready to cut at the meeting. (If you wish to put the photo onto transfer paper before coming to the meeting, please use Avery 8938.) Samples of last year's shirts will be there for ideas. Please see photo on page 9.

Bring your imagination and a pair of scissors.

We hope that you can join us... Rick Tomaszewski

CHAPTER NEWS AND NOTES

Upcoming Meeting Topics

September 2: Holidays and Special Days

The holidays, particularly those in November and December, can be very difficult for bereaved parents. Carol Benjamin, a professional therapist, will discuss these issues and offer suggestions on preparing for and dealing with holidays and significant dates such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, Chanukah, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Valentines Day, the birthdate of the child, the deathdate of the child, the day the child would have first gone to school, etc.

October 7: Loss of a Child with Special Needs

Parents who are grieving the death of a child who had special needs, often find themselves dealing with additional issues. Sandra Arán, a member of our chapter, will discuss the different problems faced by these parents, including grappling with insensitive comments, complicated feelings of guilt, the "gifts" the special child brought them, the impact of the death of the child on their own lives which were devoted to the child's care, etc.

Sponsoring a monthly newsletter in your child's name can be arranged through Lisa Beall (bealls@erols.com). Newsletter printing costs $150 and mailing is $50 each month.

Thank you!

Chapter Website

To place your child's name on our website, email Dave Alexander (dralex@sdalex.com), or send him a note, (PO box 6280, Annapolis, MD 21401). Include your name, your child's name as you would like it to appear, and your child's date of birth and date of death.

To have a picture of your child on the website, email a digital file with the picture or send a printed picture to Dave. (Photos will be returned.) If you have any questions, please call Dave at 410-544-3634.

EASTERN SHORE BEREAVED PARENTS GROUP

Our Chapter has assisted some bereaved parents who live on the Eastern Shore to form a group there which now meets monthly. The next meeting will be on September 21, at 7:00 pm, at Queen Anne's Hospice, 300 Del Rhodes Avenue, in Queenstown. Subsequent meetings are held on the 3rd Tuesdays of the month starting at 7:00 pm.

Please pass the word since we are trying to increase the turnout which has been low for the initial sessions.

All are welcome to come! For more information, call Angie McKenney at 410-827-7887. or E-Mail to steveandangiemckenney@msn.com

AMAZON.COM BENEFITS OUR CHAPTER

We have a link on the home page of our website which pays a commission of 5% of any purchases made through that link. (This does not increase the purchase price.) Tell your friends, relatives, and colleagues!

To access the site: go to www.aacounty-md-bereavedparents.org, click on the butterflies on the welcome page, scroll down to the bottom. Find the Amazon.com graphic and click on it. This links our chapter to the site and if a purchase is made, it will be credited to our site. (Purchases made from Amazon.com without going through that link do not get credited.) Since our chapter is a not-for-profit organization and has no dues or fees, we are dependent on donations and fund raisers. We are hopeful these commissions will help fund some of our community outreach activities.

Many of you who receive our newsletter were referred by a friend, physician, or clergy. You may have never attended a meeting. In this case, it is likely that your child's name does not appear in our monthly list of "Children Remembered". This is because we require your permission to do so. If you would like your child's name added, please send a note to our post office box. List your child's name, your name (s), and the dates of your child's birth and death. Please allow 6 weeks to be sure it arrives in time for the appropriate month.

Donations may be made to offset the cost of printing and mailing the newsletter, the memorial service, library books, and other literature. We gratefully acknowledge the following donations:

Dorothy & Norm Heincelman, in memory of Cortney Belt and Traci Heincelman

Ken A. Smith, in memory of

SIBLING PAGE

The following poem was written by Ryan Auch, 13, son of Bob and Joan Auch. He wrote it for school, in memory of his brother Ronny, who died at the age of 18. It shows not only a love for his brother, but a lot of talent. Thanks Ryan, for sharing this.

My Best Friend

The fishing season's coming,
but no more fishing for me,
because my best friend's not here,
to share his hooks with me.

We went fishing nearly every day.
Never hooked a thing.
But oh, what fun we had,
talking about the one that got away.

The garage still holds all the fishing gear,
but, I've no desire to fish.
It's not the same without him here.
Oh if I could have one wish.

My wish would be,
to bring my brother back to me,
so we could fish along the shore.
We'd have fun together,
and laugh once more.

All that's left are memories,
for me to think about.
I won't say goodbye; I'll see you again.
But, I'll miss you forever,
MY BEST FRIEND.

DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.

Do not stand by my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die!

Mary Frye (1932)

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am the song that will never end..
I am the love of family and friend.
I am the child who has come to rest.
In the arms of the Father who knows him best.

When you see the sunset fair,
I am the scented evening air.
I am the joy of a task well done.
I am the glow of the setting sun.

Do not stand by my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die!

Wilbur Skeels (1996)

“Quotes”

No time on earth is long enough to share with those we love,
Or prepare our hearts for that last goodbye

Before Donna's death, I found it hard to cry in front of others,
But now I see that I have to stand up and cry like a man.

Pennies In Our Thoughts

When we lost our son, our granddaughter was just 5 years old. Celisa was very close to her Uncle Jerry. We just didn't know how to explain this to her. Her Mom started telling her when she saw a penny to pick it up. It was her Uncle Jerry thinking of her. So we all started picking up pennies. Some old, some new, some shiny, some all beaten up. At the most unexpected times. Three years have gone by and we're still getting pennies from heaven. When my daughter started out to help Celisa, she didn't realize it would help us all. I always pick up a penny, and I know my Jer is thinking of me. And I have a Penny From Heaven.

Pam Schisler May, 2004

*In memory of her son Stanley "Jerry" Schisler
May 31, 1980 - May 9, 2001*

The photo above was taken by Fran Palmer showing the back and front of shirts that she had done for last year's Memorial Walk. As you can see they are a great remembrance of not only the walk, but of our children.

Some miscellaneous quotes from not-so-

"You really shouldn't say 'I love you' unless you mean it. But if you do mean it, you should say it a lot. People forget"

Jessica, age 8

"Those who, living, fill the smallest space
In death often leave the greatest void."

W.S. Landor

for the butterfly, it is the beginning of life"

Bereaved Parents of the USA CREDO

We are the parents whose children have died. We are the grandparents who have buried grandchildren. We are the siblings whose brothers and sisters no longer walk with us through life. We come together as Bereaved Parents of the USA to provide a haven where all bereaved families can meet and share our long and arduous grief journeys. We attend monthly gatherings whenever we can and for as long as we believe necessary. We share our fears, confusion, anger, guilt, frustrations, emptiness and feelings of hopelessness so that hope can be found anew. As we accept, support, comfort, and encourage each other, we demonstrate to each other that survival is possible. Together we celebrate the lives of our children, share the joys and triumphs as well as the love that will never fade. Together we learn how little it matters where we live, what our color or our affluence is or what faith we uphold as we confront the tragedies of our children's deaths. Together, strengthened by the bonds we forge at our gatherings, we offer what we have learned to each other and to every more recently bereaved family. We are the Bereaved Parents of the USA.

We welcome you.
