A Note From the Newsletter Team

As we all know, Terre Belt, with the help of her daughter Eryn Lowe have been putting the Chapter newsletter together for many years. Terre has done an absolutely outstanding job along with her many other duties as our Chapter Leader. They have certainly left big shoes for us to fill. I know she will hate this, but just this once, I wanted to remind everyone of the wonderful writing Terre has done in the past. She wrote the article below in April 2006 and it seemed appropriate to include it for this first newsletter without her. Thank you Terre and Eryn for all you've done in remembrance of Cortney and Traci. There is no way we can ever fully thank you.

SAVE THE DATE... for our Hope and Healing Conference

Plan to attend the Hope and Healing Conference on April 26, 2014 at Calvary United Methodist Church in Annapolis. For more details, see pages 6 & 7 or visit our chapter website.

A Bereaved Parent's Spring

Regardless of the calendar or the meteorologists, April marks the beginning of spring for many of us. The world outside begins to awaken from its winter slumber, and the sights and sounds and smells of spring abound, from the flowers peeking out of the ground to the birds chirping merrily outside our windows to the smell of the blooming trees as we venture out for our first walk of the season.

The printing and mailing of this newsletter have been donated by:

Mary and David Lombardo in memory of their son.

"You are in our hearts and prayers every day until we are together again."

David A. Lombardo
April 11, 1979 - April 9, 2011

Judy Bolly in memory of her daughter.

"Wen-our special "Hurricane"-you came into this world and lived your life like one. We love you and miss you more than any words in any language can say."

Wendy Jean Bolly
April 6, 1977 - October 11, 2002

A Bereaved Parent's Spring (continued from page 1)

This is what spring is all about unless, of course, you are a "newly" bereaved parent, and then you might just be oblivious to it all. In fact, you may even resent the reappearance of spring and its symbolic rebirth. The message to you from an "old timer" on this grief journey is to be easy on yourself...it won't always be this hard, and just feel whatever you feel. Don't let anyone tell you how you "should" feel this spring (or next). Like all seasons, spring will have its share of emotional triggers for the newly bereaved – graduations, Mother's Day, planning for summer vacations, favorite flowers, and just waking up. But just as April showers bring May flowers...the tears of grief will ultimately sow the seeds of hope, and someday you, too, will see the beauty of spring again.

For those of us who have been on our grief journey for awhile, not only do we recognize (and welcome) the beauty of spring again, but we also see our children in everything that is beautiful in spring. It's our way of carrying them with us through spring and through all of the seasons. So, as spring unfolds, here's wishing each of you peace and whatever joy you are able to find.

to remember something that makes you laugh.

A Little Time for Spring

by Sascha Wagner

Find a little time for Spring
even if your days are troubled.
Let a little sunshine in - let your memories be doubled.

Take a little time to see all the things your child was seeing - and your tears will help your heart find a better time for being.

Healing Through Art

Erin McConnell, LCPC, LCPAT will be speaking on healing grief through art. She is the President of the Md. Art Therapists Assoc. (MATA) and a bereavement counselor with Heartland Hospice.

Calvary United Methodist Church • 301 Rowe Boulevard • Annapolis, MD 21401

Sharing groups, a key part of each Chapter meeting, will be held as desired for first-time attendees, and the newly and non-newly bereaved. Meetings are held on the first Thursday of every month beginning at 7:30 p.m. and are open to anyone grieving the death of a child. Come around to the back of the church -- there is parking and an entrance directly into our meeting room. Doors open at 7:15 p.m.

We are a self-help support organization dedicated to assisting parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and siblings toward the positive resolution of grief following the death of a child. We provide information and education to extended family and friends. Our greatest strength as bereaved families is the unity we find in shared experiences which can lead us out of isolation, give us a place to "belong," and offer us hope that together – we can make it.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT OUR CHAPTER MEETINGS: Our Chapter gathers one evening a month to address topics and offer support to those who are mourning the death of a child. Our meetings last for approximately 2 hours. Sometimes we schedule a 30-minute presentation at the beginning of our meeting. When the speaker or panel has concluded the presentation, we introduce ourselves and say our child's name. We then take a short break before dividing into sharing groups. Sharing groups are facilitated by fellow Chapter members and are completely confidential. During this time, the issues that are discussed—particularly for the newly bereaved—focus on the issues facing participants today.

Very Sad News for Bereaved Parents Everywhere...

As some of you know, Darcie Sims died at her home in Puyallup, WA on February 27, 2014.

"She was such an integral part of TCF. Darcie served on our organization as a chapter leader and was a member of our National Board of Directors. She spoke and presented workshops at many of our national and regional conferences. (NOTE: BP-USA Conferences also.)

"Darcie was able to take the complex subject of grief and simplify it so that all could easily understand it. Her books, videos, workshops, and radio and television work have helped tens of thousands of people find hope on their grief journey. She taught each of us how to laugh and cry at the same time. She taught us that we all grieve differently and the best gift we give each other is the gift of tolerance.

As she used to say, "Thanks for the Little While."

~ written by Lois Copeland, TFC Northern Virginia & D.C.

Book Review

Why Are the Casseroles Always Tuna?
By Darcie D. Sims

It's hard to put a humorous spin on death and grief, but Darcie Sims has the gift and insight to do so. The book will make you laugh, cry, and learn a lot about yourself and others in times of grief.

*Good memories are the perennials
that bloom again
after the hard winter of grief
begins to yield to hope...*
